*Notebooks are due at the beginning of the period Monday. If you are absent on a Monday, you must have an AVID tutor grade your notebook the following Tuesday, or Thursday if you are absent on Tuesday as well. It is your responsibility to make sure your notebook is graded or it will result in a zero.
 **If you feel that your notebook was graded incorrectly, discuss with the tutor who graded your notebook. Any corrections should be made before the end of the period. Once your notebook is picked up and you leave the classroom, the score cannot be altered except by your AVID teacher.

FAQ's

- ❖ I have notes that I don't want graded. What should I do?
  - 💡 Place those unwanted notes in the back pocket of a divider or the notebook.
- ❖ My teacher does not give us notes. My teacher just stands in front of the class and talks. What can I use for notes?
  - 💡 Here are some options:
    - ✓ Write down what your teacher is saying. It's probably pretty important
    - ✓ Use your textbook and take notes on something that relates to what you are doing in class
    - ✓ Redo an assignment in the form of Cornell notes. This is extra practice and helps you retain the information
- ❖ I don't have a full page of notes. What should I do?
  - 💡 If you still have some space on your notes, do some higher-level thinking:
    - ✓ Go to your textbook and backfill the note page by Marking the Text.
- ❖ What happens if my teacher collected my notes?
  - 💡 Once your teacher hands back your notes, show them to your AVID teacher and he/she will add them to your score.
- ❖ If I was absent, what do I need to make up?
  - 💡 First find out what was missed from a classmate and fill in your planner. If you missed notes, then make sure to copy the notes from a reliable classmate.
  - 💡 If you are absent on the day notebooks are due, you are required to have your tutor grade your notebook on the following Tuesday.
